

Opera

The Opera web browser controls pop-up blocking on a site-by-site basis where the user decides on whether to allow the. You can enable access as follows:

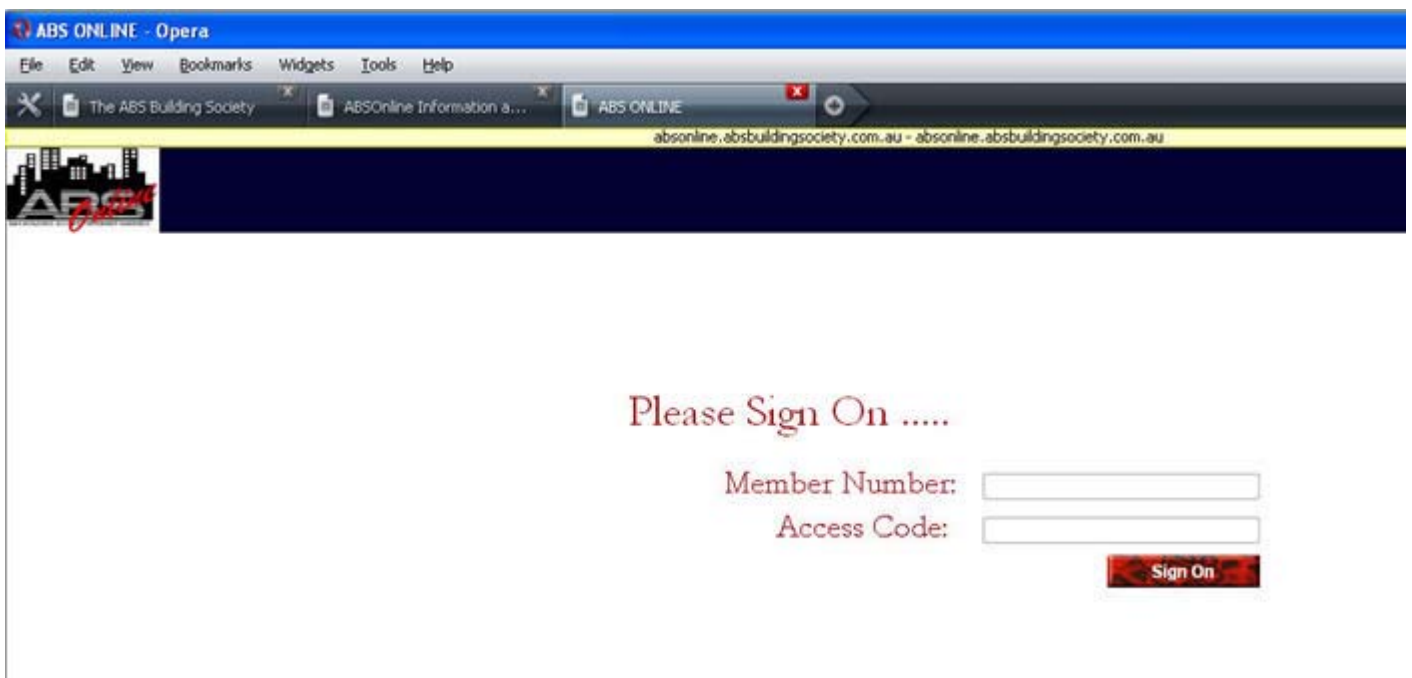

1. After clicking on the link to ABSOnline you will receive a notification as shown below, reporting that a pop-up has been blocked.

her person.

r computer, and

2. Click where indicated to open the login page. When open you will notice a small yellow strip as shown.

3. Click on the yellow section to open up the address and security details for the ABSOnline site.

You can log in as normal at this point.